

TUESDAY THE BIG GREAT CROWD AT FIGHT AT THE FAIR RACES POLLS FRIDAY

eight of these are Democrats and 18 Republicans.

The regular Republican organization in Pennsylvania appears to have had a hard road to travel. John G. Tener, past exalted ruler of the Elks, Republican candidate for governor, has been vigorously assailed and it was at one time reported that he intended to quit.

In the thirteenth district, congressman John Daisel of Pittsburgh, the ranking member of the ways and means committee is having a hard fight. He is not only being opposed by the regular Democratic nominee, but Maj. Black, of McKeesport, a "progressive" Republican, is running on an independent ticket.

Indiana is in rather a chaotic state. There are at present 11 Democrats and two Republicans in the house, but very few of this number are confident of their berths in the next congress. Senator Beveridge, one of the leading Republicans in the upper house, dominates the Republican party in this state.

Iowa Republicans Split.
In Iowa there are 11 congressmen to be elected. At the present time 19 of these are Republicans, but the Democrats feel hopeful of capturing this state, owing to the split in the Republican ranks. A number of the insurgents have been nominated on independent tickets while the standpatners have received the regular nominations.

Wisconsin will also elect 11 congressmen. In this state insurgency seems to have full sway and the Republican leaders seem confident of electing their candidates.

In Kansas's District.
In Illinois there are 25 districts, six of which are at present represented by Democrats and the remainder by Republicans. A large number of these are in the doubtful column, but the friends of speaker Joseph G. Cannon are extremely confident of giving him a large plurality in the eighteenth district.

Tennessee has a big fight on her hands. This has been complicated with the shooting of senator Corman about two years ago. Governor Malcolm R. Patterson was severely criticised for pardoning Col. Cooper immediately after he had been sentenced to a long term of imprisonment for the killing of Corman. Patterson was renominated on the Democratic ticket, but so violent did the opposition become that he resigned and was succeeded by senator Bob Taylor. In the meantime the wing of the Democratic party that bolted Patterson, had endorsed the Republican nominee, Captain Hooper, who is known as the fusion candidate.

At present there are eight Democratic and two Republican representatives in congress and the Tennessee Republicans are making a real hard fight to get a majority in at this election, and on account of the hopeless split in the Democratic ranks, they may be able to do so.

In Kentucky there is a warm congressional fight. At present this state is represented by eight Democrats and three Republicans.

on the regular program of races. Ginger, skillfully handled by H. W. Brown, was the closest competitor for the first honors in this race, but the Don took three straight heats, giving Dick Allen third money and Ginger second. The three heats in this race were interesting and each of the horses showed an abundance of speed and class.

Jockey Is Hurt.
In the four furlongs dash, Yankee Nic, with Wallace up, won from the field, after Pip Carson had put Sunline out in front for the first few furlongs. Sunline managed to hold the lead until the stretch, when Yankee Nic beat him out for first position, with Tom Franks third.

Special El Paso Derby was scratched down to four starters, and one was left at the post, Cardinal Sarto failing to get away with the barrier. Kopek won going away, with La Dextra second and Pedro third. It was Kopek all the way, with all of the other chances cut off from a view of the derby money.

W. T. Overton threw his boy, A. Morgan, going to the post for the six furlongs dash, and the jockey suffered a broken leg as a result of the fall. A stable boy was substituted in his place and Overton was ridden to a winning in spite of the accident. St. Kilda was second by a fraction and Doc Allen, an old time favorite, was third.

DALHART BAND WILL BUILD $25,000 HOME
Dalhart, Texas, Nov. 5.—The most important deal in city property in the history of Dalhart was the sale of the 25 foot corner of Third street and Detroit avenue upon which the old Dalhart hotel stood. The sale was made by R. C. Shindler, the First National bank of Dalhart, the consideration being $10,000.

Mr. Shindler retains ownership of the buildings and will move them to other vacant property by December 31. The First National bank will erect a $25,000 brick block upon the lot.

Through the auspices of the Dalhart Commercial club a banquet was tendered the E. O. & W. officials at the De Soto hotel. Over 50 guests responded to the invitation and did justice to a four course spread.

Hon. C. M. Kella did the honors of toastmaster. Rev. J. W. Hunt delivered a prayer, and addresses were made by Judge W. W. Moore, W. R. Waggoner, mayor; W. J. Clarke, postmaster; senator J. E. Farrow of the Texas; D. O. Hazelton; Geo. W. Sturtevant, capitalist, Chicago, and attorneys Reece Tatum and T. R. Day.

Congratulations were extended the officers for their efficient work in the building up of the E. O. & W. railway.

AMUSEMENTS.
THE CRAWFORD THEATER.
Frank Rich, manager of the Crawford, says: "Salome Jane," the new offering at the Crawford, starting Sunday matinee, is one of the big New York successes. The piece has never been seen in this city, and should prove the same success here as it has through the east. It is a beautiful story of the west, and is from the book of Bret Hart's of the same title. Seats are now selling at the Crawford box office, prices 15, 25 and 35 cents."

PASSION PLAY.
The advance sale of tickets promises a record breaking house for the Passion Play at the El Paso theater, Nov. 10. Either the lecture, the original life size pictures in colors, or the musical program, is worth the price of admission, say those who know. It promises to be a rare educational as well as musical treat.

HAPPY HOUR.
Says manager Peck, the crowd this week at the Crawford was pleased big attendances. Prof. Wallace's great water more chances to see this marvelous and wonderful

SOLOMONVILLE NOTES.
Solomonville, Ariz., Nov. 5.—Miss Myrtle Champ, who has been spending the summer past with her aunt, Mrs. Frank Richardson, has left for El Paso where she will visit a sister, Mrs. Emma Ayers at El Paso before going to her home at Big Springs, Texas.

Mrs. W. R. Chambers entertained with bridge whist at her home. The guests were Mesdames Solomon, Freudenthal and Clark with Messrs. Chambers, Marcus and Freudenthal.

W. A. Bennett, who has returned from his hunting trip, says game was good on Black river and the weather ideal.

FIT THE GROCER.
Wife Made the Suggestion.
A grocer has excellent opportunity to know the effects of special foods or his customers. A Cleveland grocer has a long list of customers that have been helped in health by leaving off coffee and using Postum.

He says regarding his own experience: "Two years ago I had been drinking coffee and must say that I was almost wrecked in my nerves. Particularly in the morning I was so irritable and upset that I could hardly wait until the coffee was served, and then I had no appetite for breakfast and did not feel like attending to my store duties."

"One day my wife suggested that inasmuch as I was selling so much Postum there must be some merit in it and suggested that we try it. I took home a package and she prepared it according to directions. The result was a very happy one."

"My nervousness gradually disappeared and today I am all right. I would advise everyone affected in any way with nervousness or stomach troubles, to leave off coffee and use Postum."

"There's a Reason." Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

The Puzzle Picture This Week

The puzzle this week is one of the cleverest of the entire series. It is similar to the one we had week before last. Just to help contestants out, we will say that each missing word contains four letters. We will also tell you that when you find the word that fills in the first space you have the letters that make the other three missing words. Now, with this information, we feel sure that every one should have a correct solution.

Rules of the Contest

Every Herald reader is entitled to send in an answer. You are asked to supply the four missing words, or as many of them as you can. In addition, you are asked to give, in as few words as possible, your opinion of "An Ideal Kitchen." Awards will be based on correctness of solution, merit of opinion. Send or bring your answer to this office before 5 o'clock Wednesday after noon, Nov. 8th.

SPECIAL NOTE—All answers mailed must be addressed to "Puzzle Dept., El Paso Gas & Electric Co., Bassett Bldg."

PREMIUM IS PUT ON SHADE TREES

New Mexico Will Not Tax Efforts of Citizens to Beautify Grounds.
Santa Fe, N. M., Nov. 5.—The new constitution provides that in valuing and assessing lands for taxation, no additional valuation or assessment shall be made for shade or ornamental trees growing thereon, nor on account of fruit or nutbearing trees or vines thereon until they reach the age at which they respectively become productive.

Provisions providing for a commissioner of agriculture at $2000 a year; for a commissioner of labor, for forest conservation on state lands and water power sites, were all rejected.

An effort to include a clause giving settlers the right to take and sell free timber from the state lands also went down to defeat.

"Economy" was the slogan that killed the proposition to create the offices of labor and agricultural commissioners.

When the convention met Friday afternoon to take up the important schedules on state, county and municipal taxation, there was found to be such a difference of opinion that a recess was taken until Monday afternoon to permit the delegates to get together informally on the subject.

at the close of today's session. This is due to dissatisfaction over the initiative and referendum clause. Paragraph 8, adopted yesterday, extended the provision to counties. Today amendments to the amended paragraph appeared and before the morning session closed, it became impossible to follow the arguments, this incapacity extending to the speakers themselves.

It is now believed by what appears to be a majority that counties should not be allowed the initiative and referendum privilege, and therefore one of the dozen or so amendments passed today is expected to be adopted.

Holidays Next Week.
This is the close of the fourth week of the convention. The territorial fair opens Monday, and as the governor has proclaimed each afternoon of next week a holiday, convention sessions will be held only in the morning.
